Email Media Kit 2016

Email Marketing Opportunities

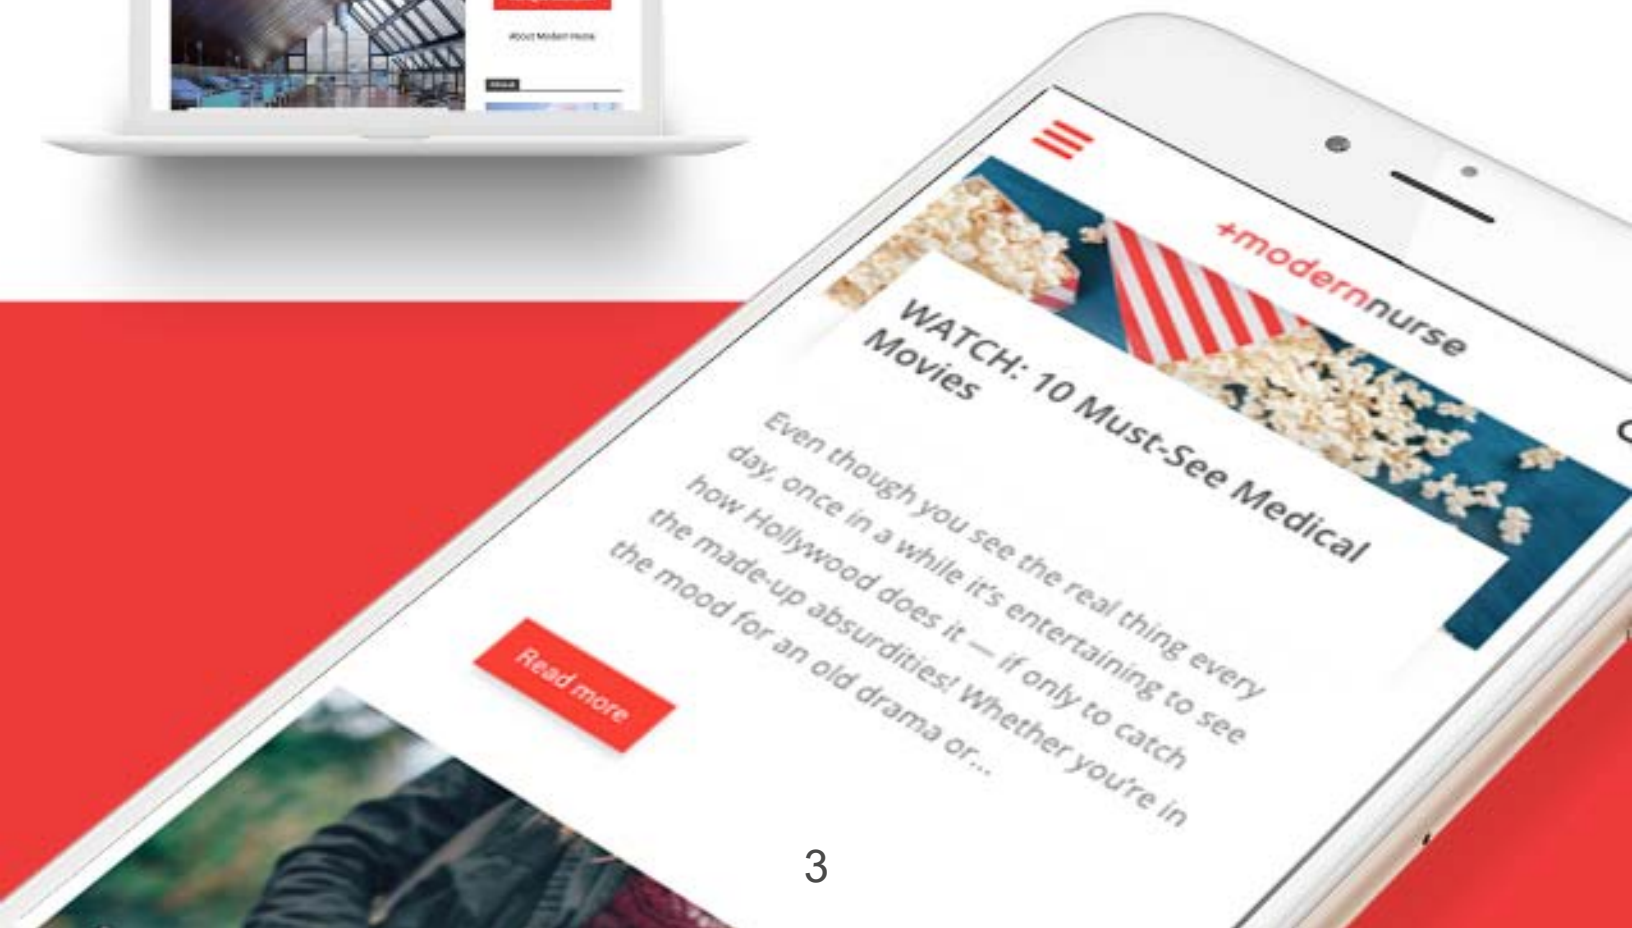

> Reach your ideal candidates in any market with the help of Modern Nurse Magazine!

Modern Nurse Magazine is one of the highest circulated publishers in the nursing industry with over 380,000 daily email subscribers, reaching a massive nursing audience with engaging and informative content that they love to receive.

Our email marketing packages allow you to directly communicate with the exact nursing subscribers in your market of interest - You are able to reach them with a direct broadcast email message, sponsored stories (native advertising) as well as email advertising placements.

Your Message Directly to Their Inbox.

Our email marketing packages allow you to get your message directly in front of your most desired audience. From custom email messaging to ads in our email issues and on our website, your audience will experience multiple exposures in a variety of formats bringing you to the top of their mind during the duration of your package. Modern Nurse can help you recruit students for all types of Nursing and Advanced degree programs.

> Inventory is Extremely Limited !

There are a very limited number of national ad placements and sponsorships available. We cannot guarantee or reserve inventory until a purchase order is received. We also limit the frequency of custom email blasts to our audience to ensure maximum impact.
